How we use your personal information	The purpose for which personal information is processed may include any or all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• deliver services and meet legal responsibilities• verify identity where this is required• communication by post, email or telephone• understand needs and how they may be met• maintain records• process financial transactions• prevent and detect crime, fraud or corruption• may also need to use data to defend or take legal actions related to the above
Lawful basis for the processing	Most processing is carried out to comply with our legal obligations under statute and other regulatory obligations related to the insolvency process. We also believe our processing is for the legitimate interests of all stakeholders in the insolvency process, as they are entitled to be kept informed and may wish to engage in the insolvency process. Where Parker Andrews Limited has engaged with a client to perform a service, we will be required to process data to provide the service in accordance with the contractual terms.
What personal information we hold	The categories are: contact details, financial information and location. In rare cases, we may hold some special category data, e.g. trade union membership or information about individuals' health, which will be necessary to administer the insolvency process in line with our legal obligations.
Who we share our data with	We may also use third parties located in other countries to help us run our business. As a result, personal data may be transferred outside the

	countries where we and our clients are located. This includes countries that do not have laws that provide specific protection for personal data. We have taken steps to ensure all personal data is provided with adequate protection and that all transfers of personal data internationally are done lawfully. Where we transfer personal data internationally to a country not providing an adequate level of protection for personal data, the transfers will be under an agreement which covers the UK GDPR requirements for the transfer of personal data internationally. Personal data held by us may be transferred to: Other offices Details of our other office locations are available here https://www.parkerandrews.co.uk/contact-us/. We may share personal data with other offices where necessary for administrative purposes and to provide professional services to our clients. Third party organisations that provide applications/functionality, data processing or IT services to us We use third parties to support us in providing our services and to help provide, run and manage our internal IT systems. For example, providers of information technology, cloud based software as a service provider, identity management, website hosting and management, data analysis, data back-up, security and storage services. The servers powering and facilitating that cloud infrastructure are located in secure data centres based in the UK, and personal data may be stored in any one of them. Third party organisations that otherwise assist us in providing goods, services or information Auditors and other professional advisers Law enforcement or other government and regulatory agencies or to other third parties as required by, and in accordance with, applicable law or regulation Occasionally, we may receive requests from third parties with authority to obtain disclosure of personal data, such as to check that we are complying with applicable law and regulation, to investigate an alleged crime, to establish, exercise or defend legal rights. In addition, as part of our statutory duties, we may be required to share some personal data with government agencies (e.g. Companies House and the Insolvency Service) and this may result in some data being made available by these agencies in the public domain. We will only fulfil requests for personal data where we are permitted to do so in accordance with applicable law or regulation.
How long we retain your personal information	We retain personal data for as long as is necessary to achieve the purpose listed above and for any other permissible related purpose. For example, we retain most records until the time limit for claims arising from the activities has expired or otherwise to comply with statutory or regulatory requirements regarding the retention of such records.
Your rights	The UK GDPR provides the following rights for individuals:

	Right to inform This privacy notice meets our requirement to inform you of our processing of your data. Access to personal data You have a right of access to personal data held by us as a data controller.
